Dear Wine Club Member,

We're rolling into summer already, and our hillside estate is blanketed with beautiful green vines that are progressing nicely. Summer is my favorite time to enjoy a delicious grilled dinner out on the patio with a glass of wine in hand. We have some great wines for these sun-filled moments, outdoor gatherings and BBQs.

In your May wine selection, we are featuring the 2019 Barrel Select Chardonnay and Pinot Noir. Every year, we make note of exceptional blocks and barrels which are chosen for these two wines. Our Barrel Select Chardonnay is rich and full-bodied. The 18 months aging in new French oak is on full display, and pairs well with grilled scallops and fennel. The Barrel Select Pinot Noir can stand up to many hearty food pairings that other Pinots just can't compete with. I like to pair it with grilled lamb, and seasonal grilled vegetables.

Our final wine is the 2019 Sta. Rita Hills Syrah – the favorite around this region for summertime grilling. As a cool-climate Syrah, this beauty retains those lovely blue and black fruit characteristics as well as the black pepper notes that I fell in love with while working in the Rhône region and in our home in the Sta. Rita Hills. One of my go-to summertime pairings has to be a coffee encrusted ribeye steak with our Syrah; they are just made for each other.

Now is a wonderful time to join us at the winery for exceptional views of the beautiful Sta. Rita Hills. I hope to see you soon and as always, thank you for your continued membership.

Cheers,

Dave Frazier
